

HONORING NATIVE HERITAGE

NOVEMBER PLANNING CALENDAR - VIRTUAL

WEEK 1

- Host a virtual Community Service Day to honor your local community and culture.
- Share Native dance videos. Have youth record themselves practicing. Host a virtual talent show that features this dance, with singing and storytelling.
- Share Native recipes and create a digital recipe book.

WEEK 2

- Celebrate Native American Veterans and Tribal leaders by making a card to mail to them.
- Host a virtual poster contest to do from home with the National Native American Heritage Month theme.
- Prepare for Rock Your Mocs Day on November 15th by sharing pictures of wearing Mocs on social media.

WEEK 3

- E-mail a letter to an elder in your Tribe.
- Learn about the harvesting season, by watching videos of the harvest. Enjoy harvested Native foods (berries, roots, etc.)
- Have an elder video chat about Tribal traditions. Make a past, present and future time capsule to show your heritage and how you practice culture.

WEEK 4

- Connect digitally with another Native Club and make pen pals. Get to know each other, and learn together about emotional wellness.
- Watch videos to create a traditional Native craft, or draw a place on your land that brings good feelings and strength.
- Watch videos to learn words or phrases from your Tribe's Native language.

WEEK 5

- Host a photography contest online to capture Native culture in your community.
- Host a virtual event to celebrate Native college graduates and Native Club alumni.
- Have a digital scavenger hunt for youth to find significant things online or content written in your Native language.
